Daffodil International University in association with Daffodil Computers Ltd distributed DCL laptops among some 3000 students of the university on Sunday.

The initiative is part of the university's 'One Student: One Laptop' project, said a release.

The laptop conferring event was held at the DIU Swadhinata Milanayatan.

ICT Division senior secretary NM Zeaul Alam virtually attended the programme as the chief guest where DIU acting vice-chancellor M Mahabub Ul Haque Majumder presided over it.

DIU student affairs director Syed Mizanur Rahman Raju conducted the programme and academic affairs dean Mostafa Kamal addressed it.

Under the 'One Student: One Laptop' project, every student admitted into DIU from summer semester 2010 and onwards gets a laptop at free of cost. Some 30,000 laptops have so far been distributed until the date.
